Roz Foyer, General Secretary, STUC

12:30-1.30pm

Just Transition: Protecting our jobs and our planet through worker action

Tam Wilson, Just Transition Officer, STUC

Tackling the climate emergency will require action across every part of Scotland, including every workplace and sector. Workers and union reps are the key to meeting our climate targets and getting the move to a net zero economy right.

Tuesday, 3rd December

12:30-1.30pm

Cost of living

Francis Stuart, Senior Policy Officer, STUC

This webinar will help trade union members and reps connect their everyday experience with questions of where workplace power lies, and how we can organise to tackle the cost of living

Wednesday, 4th December

12:30-1.30pm    Union Learning Reps: Driving workforce development
Panel session

- Participants to be confirmed

Chair:

- Tommy Breslin, Senior Development Officer, Scottish Union Learning

Thursday, 5th December

12:30-1.30pm    Money Advice Scotland
Lisa Cope, Financial Wellbeing Officer, Money Advice Scotland

The cost of our essentials, food, energy, and rent have risen sharply over the last few years. The 'cost-of-living crisis' is impacting millions of households across the country. This webinar will look at the context of the crisis and the Government support available. We will discuss the information on your energy bill, how to maximise your income and get advice if you are struggling with debt.

Friday, 6th December

12:30-1.30pm    Fair Work in Action
Sean Baillie, Fair Work Officer, STUC

Fair Work in Action supports the diversification of leadership within the trade union movement, increasing the capacity of unions to deliver on the equalities agenda, emphasising the need for a strong and effective worker voice and promoting wider Fair Work principles.
